

ATTENTION TO FAMILY QUESTIONS

Citizens Believe City Is Really Bound for Stuand's Death.

Several Galesburg citizens who are of the opinion that the city of Galesburg is under no legal obligation to pay $1,000 to the family of Mrs. K. A. Augustana, senior who died accidentally several weeks ago, are taking steps, it is understood, to enjoin the Galesburg city council from giving this money to the family as an expressed benefit in "moral obligation." It was stated in the Galesburg papers last evening that citizens would take steps to enjoin the officers from paying this sum, believing that the city of Galesburg has no funds available from which to meet "moral obligations." An excerpt from the Galesburg Republican Register says:

"While expressing the utmost sympathy for the unfortunate young man's family, the citizens interested hold that there is no legal obligation on the part of the city and the amount as there is therefore no liability, there was no fund from which the city could legally make payment of the sum recommended. The city annually sets aside certain sums which are appropriated for the purpose of meeting claims against the city under the employer's liability act and other claims for damages. This fund, it is contended, is for the purpose of meeting legally established claims for damages against the city and not for the purpose of meeting 'moral obligations.'"

"It is further held that the allowance of any sum is a tacit admission of liability on the part of the city and opens the way for the collection of a large sum in damages through legal procedure. It was rumored about the city hall this morning that any attempt at payment of the sum mentioned would be followed by legal action on the part of several taxpayers."

IL TROVATORE IS ERIE CLUB TOPIC

(Special Correspondence.)

Erie, Nov. 17.—A very interesting session of the Erie Woman's club was held Tuesday afternoon and the attendance was large, about forty-five being present. The regular business meeting was held and two new members, Mesdames Hannah Talcott and Lu Seearer, were received. It was "music day" and the chosen topic was the opera "Il Trovatore." The program opened with the reading of a paper on music by Mrs. Rose Thompson, after which Mrs. Osella Robertson read the story of the opera in a very interesting manner interspersed with victrola selections from the opera. The program closed with the singing of "America." A surprise was in store for the ladies as the new piano, purchase of which had been in contemplation since the successful street fair was held, had been purchased and delivered the preceding day. As it was not definitely known the piano would be delivered in time for the meeting Tuesday, the committee had not arranged for musical selections and doubtless a musical treat would have been enjoyed, as the program was in charge of Mrs. Winnie Burchell, one of Erie's popular musicians. The need of a piano has been greatly felt, as music is an important element in the programs and the ladies are well pleased, as the club is now free from debt. A social time followed the program during which a dainty luncheon was served by a committee.

Fraternal

Following short business meetings Tuesday evening by Camp No. 85, Woodmen of the World, and Grove No. 27, Woodmen circle, a social session for members only was held. Five hundred was playing and the prize winners were George Goodrum, Miss Ada Delsenroth, H. R. Battles and Frank I. Head. The consolation prize went to Emil Van Hooberbeck, who also won the drawing prize. Refresh-
